SPECIAL SALES TERMS

TRAINING REGISTRATION AND TRAINING AGREEMENT

• In accordance with French Law No. 71-575 of July 16, 1971, relating to continuing vocational training, registration for a training course requires an agreement between the company and ERMONT, registered as a training provider under registration number 82 420039542.

• All registrations must be confirmed by sending back the order form included in this proposal.

• Upon receipt of your registration, we will send you a training agreement, which must be completed, signed and returned to us.

PARTICIPATION

• Upon completion of the training course, each participant will receive an individual training certificate.

• Any cancellation must be notified in writing at least 5 days before the start date of the training course. In such cases, we will be required to invoice 25% of the training fee stated in the agreement.

• Once a training course has started, the full training fee is payable.

• Training fees are charged as a fixed fee and are payable within 60 days of the invoice date.

SPECIFIC TRAINING COURSE TERMS

• Under no circumstances shall the content of these training courses render ERMONT liable in the event of any damage, incident or accident.

• Under no circumstances shall these training courses constitute, even implicitly, an acknowledgment by ERMONT of any liability regarding the use or operation of the asphalt plant in the circumstances referred to above.

• The content of these training courses shall not replace the health and safety rules applicable in the workplace, which remain the responsibility of the company manager.

• In order to ensure the quality of the training, the number of participants per course is deliberately limited to 8. ERMONT also reserves the right to cancel a training course, particularly in the event of an insufficient number of registrations.
